

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & LIBERAL ARTS
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

This course introduces students to a brief and relevant history of teaching English language with emphasis placed on current, effective approaches and issues. Students will examine strengths and drawbacks of a variety of approaches, while also considering the role of concepts such as agency, interaction, and identity. The course will also explore contexts of learning that take into account age, proficiency, culture, and social aspects.

COURSE NUMBER	TEL 6110
COURSE TITLE	Foundation of TESOL Methods
CREDITS	3
PREREQUISITE	None

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & LIBERAL ARTS
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION